

1 Borrowdale Street Red Hill ACT

5 3 2

At just over 300 square metres this is a substantial and beautifully presented two storey home, with swimming pool and expansive gardens, designed for maximum amenity. Amongst its many attributes this home features separate living and dining areas and north facing garden alfresco area. Bedrooms located on the upper level provide privacy and separation further enhancing the property's liveability.

The house has been designed to take full advantage of its corner position and the 985 square meter block is endowed with established and relatively low maintenance gardens. Of particular note is the sparkling in-ground swimming pool located for privacy but also to optimise available sunlight. It adds an additional calm mood to the already serene garden area.

The internal areas are very well laid out. This serves to
